NEW YORK, SUNDAY, MAY 28, 1922.

Outdoor Suburban Season Has a Brilliant Opening

Fashionable Groups Gather at the Belmont Park Races, Zoological Society's Garden Party and Westchester-Biltmore Country Club.

HERE were three rivals in the field last Thursday for the favors of society, with the spring meet of the Westehester Racing Association at Belmont Park, the garden party at the "Zoo" and the formal opening of the Westchester-Biltmore Country Club, each holding forth almost equal inducements.

The meet at Belmont Park was one of the most interesting since the war, and the scene in advance of the races at the Turf and Field Club was picturesque with the numerous luncheon parties, most of which, with the perfect day, were served on the lawn under the trees, which are a feature of what formerly was the country place of the family of the late Mr. August Belmont, the founder of the racing park that bears his family name, had one of the luncheons, his guests being served at a table placed on the veranda of the clubhouse, where the view of the gardens and lawn was to be had. In his party were Mr. and Mrs. F. Gray Griswold, Mr. and Mrs. Francis K. Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., and Miss Jane Perry Tiffany, a cousin of Mr. Belmont. The largest luncheon at the club was that given by Mr. and Mrs.

Richard T. Wilson, who had forty guests placed at several tables on the veranda, and afterward they had several boxes for their luncheon guests in the Turf and Field Club enclosure.

One of the luncheon parties served on the lawn of the club was that given by Dr. and Mrs. A. Hamilton Rice, who recently returned from a trip to India. In the party were Mrs. Rice's son and daughter-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. George D. Widener. Dr. and Mrs. Rice are to pass the summer in Newport. They also are building a house in New York.

During the races many members of the club watched the events from the lawn in front of the grand stand boxes, where there was another colorful sight. Mrs. Payne Whitney came from Greentree, her country place in Manhasset, bringing her daughter, Miss Joan Whitney, and Miss Lydia Dadmun Mrs William K. Vanderbilt 2d and Miss Muriel Vander bilt came from Jericho, and Mr. Clarence H. Mackay motored from Harbor Hill, Roslyn, to join his daughter, Miss Ellin Mackay, who was with Miss Louisa Steedman Wilson in one of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Wilson's boxes. Mr. W. Goadby Loew was another representative of the Long Island colony, and he brought his daughters, the Misses Florence and Evelyn Loew, from their place in Westbury.

Not only was Long Island represented in the brilliant gathering but Tuxedo Park and Westchester county. Mr. and Mrs. David Wagstaff and are occupied and more sojourners are Mr. Pierre Lorillard, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Hooker, Mr. and Mrs. H. at the hotels than in any other year Coleman Drayton and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kip Rhinelander made an early start that morning, motoring from Tuxedo to the Turf and Field Club for luncheon. Many of those who had motored from New York and nearby places remained at the club for dinner.

There was an entirely different scene at the "Zoo," where in addition Mountain and Jacob's Ladder, have to the annual garden party given by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the New York helped greatly to increase the motor Zoological Society, there was an opportunity to inspect strange animals and traffic also to assist at the dedication of the Heads and Horns Museum, in advance of which there had been a luncheon for the board of directors, at which this section during the week was that Prof. H. Fairfield Osborn, the chairman, presided.

The erection of the new museum is due to the generosity of Mrs. Fred-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. erick Ferris Thompson, the late Andrew Carnegie and Mrs. Carnegie, the Church of Great Barrington, to late Mrs. Russell Sage, Mr. George F. Baker, Mr. George D. Pratt and the Donald M. Weston of Dalton.

Yet another division of society was in evidence at the formal opening of the Westchester-Biltmore Country Club, which is in the midst of several hundred acres of wooded land in that picturesque country between Harrison and Rye. The clubhouse is surrounded by wide terraces from which there were the week of Mr. Henry N. Teague, is a view unsurpassed, with the Sound near by, and the attractions for the golf enthusiasts are many with the two eighteen hole courses and one nine hole course. Mr. John McE. Bowman, president of the club, did the honors of the day, which began with a reception and buffet luncheon served on the lawns. There also was music by the Seventh Regiment Band. At 3 o'clock there was a four ball golf match with Messrs. Walter Hagen, James Barnes, Thomas Armour and Cuthbert Butchcart.

Later the clubhouse was inspected and the sports house adjoining, which is of terra cotta tile and stucco of Italian architecture. Field Marshal Earl French of Ypres was one of the many guests. At night there was a dinner for men given by Mr. Bowman.

The outdoor suburban season is by no means ended and the coming attractions will be the horse show at Tuxedo Park next Friday and Saturday. In anticipation of this annual event preparations are being made for numerous festivities at the villas in the park, and one of the chief entertainments will be the dance which Mr. and Mrs. Amory S. Carhart are to give next the villams In are Mrs. Abram Garfield of Cleveland, Ohio, sistenday and Dr. Herry A. Garfield of Dr. Herry

Friday night.

Mrs. David Wagstaff, who with her husband and children will sail for Europe on June 17, is president of the show. Mr. Pierre Lorillard is secretary and treasurer. Among the judges will be Messrs. R. Lawrence Smith, Alfred B. Maclay and Richard H. Williams, Jr. Among the exhibits there will be some local classes to which residents of Tuxedo Park and officers of West. Point and their families are eligible. Three days later there will be the show at West Point, to which many residents of Tuxedo Park will go.

Abram Garrield of Cleveland, Ohio, sister-in-law of Dr. Harry A. Garrield of Williams College. Her son, Mr. Edward Garrield, is to graduate this year. Among others there are Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hinckley Arnold, Mrs. David M. Milton, Mrs. Dexter Blagden, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stuart, Mrs. W. A. Stuart, Mrs. W. A. Charlen of New York.

West Point, to which many residents of Tuxedo Park will go.

Plans for the summer are varied and the exodus to Europe still continues. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Burrail Hoffman, who sailed last week on board the Paris, will go at once to Paris, which for a while will be their headquarters. Later they will motor through the battlefield districts of France and Belgium. It is their intention to be for part of the summer in Dinard, where they will visit Mrs. E. Ballard Smith. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman in Southampton has been leased for the summer, although they may go there late in September on their return from Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Gerard, who went abroad a month ago, have been in Paris. They will return late next month and will go to Newport, R. I.. where they have leased for the summer Fairlawn, the villa of the late Mr. and Mrs. I. Townsend Burden, which now belongs to their daughter, Miss Evelyn Byrd Burden. During the summer Mrs. Gerard will introduce to solety her niece, Miss Margaret Carroll Brown, a granddaughter of the late Marcus Daly. Miss Carroll Brown's mother, who died several years ago, was Miss Margaret Daly.

Mr. and Mrs. Andre de Coppet, who will sail next Saturday on board the

Mr. and Mrs. Andre de Coppet, who will sail next Saturday on board the

Mr. and Mrs. Andre de Coppet, who will sail next Saturday on board the Olympic, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Peter E. Farnum, will go to Switzerland for the summer. Mrs. S. Oakley Vanderpoel and her daughters also will sail on board the same steamship, and will go to St. Jean de Luz, near Biarritz, where in July they will be joined by Mr. Vanderpoel. Mrs. Edward J. de Coppet and her daughter, Miss Juliette de Coppet, who are sailing on the Olympic, also will go to Switzerland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Aspegren, who last autumn purchased from the estate of the late Mrs. H. Mortimer Brooks Rockhurst, in Bellevue avenue, Newport, have remodeled the place to a great extent and also have changed its name to Aspenhall. Mr. and Mrs. Aspegren have been in Newport for two summers, and this year they will entertain extensively in their new villa.

So successful have the "garden days" proved for the benefit of the West-chester County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children that two extra gardens will be thrown open to the public. In addition to the garden of Mrs. Elmernan, in Purchase, N. Y., that of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould at Agawam, in Ardsley-on-Hudson, will be open for inspection. Mrs. Waiter Douglas of Glenalla, Chauncey, will give over to the committee her garden for June 17, and both Mrs. Gould and Mrs. Douglas are on the list for next season, when the same efforts to raise money for the temporary shelter, which is at 111 Warburton avenue, Yonkers, will be made.

The admission to the gardens is 50 cents a person, and it is expected that the amount raised on the Saturdays in this month and next will go far toward the year's expenses of the society.

W News and Sidelights of Society.

Starts Earlier Than

Improved State Highways Increases Automobile Traffic -Social Notes.

LENOX, Mass., May 27.

HE season in the Berkshire Hills is starting earlier than at any time in recent years. More villas since long before the war. The hotel men say a continuation of pleasant days and greatly improved State high-late Jacob H. Schiff, Edmund C. Converse and Samuel Thorne. This building, which is the third presented to the city by the society, has among its notable specimens African elephant tusks, a mounted head of a Siberian ibex, also heads of a giant forest hog and a white rhinoceros.

There was the usual inspection at the "Zoo" of live animals in their cages or quarters and the reception in front of the Administration Building, where Mrs. H. Fairfield Osborn, according to her custom of years, received the many guests who had motored from town. There was music by a military band and tea was served at tables placed on the lawn.

Donald M. Weston of Dalton. Miss Church's father, a textile manufacturer, is president of the Wyantenuck Church's father, a textile manufacturer, is president of the Wyantenuck School following. There was the usual inspection and tennis well. She has traveled and has studied music and art in New York. Mr. Weston is a paper manufacturer and was graduated from Yale Scientific School in 1914. He is a son of the late Lieut. Gov. Byron Weston and Mrs. Weston

Mrs. George Higginson, Jr., gave her

MRS. GEORGE D.

Dr. and Mrs. Preston Pope Sat-terwhite, Martin Hall, Great Neck, L. I., a luncheon.

THURSDAY - Marriage of Miss

Katherine Van Ingen, daughter of the late Edward Van Ingen and Mrs. Van Ingen, to Mr. George Faber Downey, Jr., St. Bartholo-mew's Church, afternoon. Marriage of Miss Olivia Erd-mann, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John F. Erdmann, to Mr. John L. Kuser, Jr., home of the bride's pa-rents, 60 West Fifty-second street, afternoon.

rents, 60 Weat Fifty-second street, afternoon.

Wedding of Miss Mary Morris Ostrand er, daughter of Mrs. Charles F. Ostrander, and Mr. Hugh White Adams, chapel of St. Bartholomew's Church, afternoon.

Marriage of Miss Elizabeth Minot Clarke, daughter of Mr. Charles E. F. Clarke and of Mrs. Chamberlain Clarke, to Mr. John F. Jelke, Jr., Cathedral of St. John the Divine, afternoon.

afternoon.
Mr. John Gordon Winchester of New York, who will marry Miss Lilian Aldrich of Boston, farewell bachelor dinner, the A. D. Club, Harvard University.

FRIDAY—Spring Horse Show, Tuxedo Park, morning and afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Amory S. Carhart,
Tuxedo Park, a Horse Show dance.
Wedding of Miss Priscilla Alden
Bartlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Philip G. Bartlett, and Mr. Alexander I. Henderson, home of the bride's parents, 30 East Fifty-second street, afternoon.

SATURDAY-Final day of the Tux

edo Park Horse Show.

Marriage of Miss Mariquita Penniman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Gardner B. Penniman, to Lieut.
Ralph Underhill Hyde, U. S. N.,
Church of the Atonement, Quogue, Marriage of Miss Leslie Carter.

Marriage of Miss Leslie Carter, daughter of Mr. Herbert Leslie Carter, to Mr. Theodore Sherman Class of this city and Westfield, N. J. First Parish Church, West Roxbury, Mass., evening.

Matriage of Miss Anna Louise Woodruff, daughter of Mrs. Mary Woodruff, daughter of Mrs. Mary Woodruff, to Mr. James F. Vreeland, Madison Avenue Baptist Church, evening.

Wedding of Miss Marlon Aubrey Eaton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Aubrey Eaton, and Mr. William Russeil Burwell of New York, in the Mary E. Wilson Memorial Chapel, Watchung, N. J., htternoon.

Marriage of Miss Virginia Hay, ternoon. Marriage of Miss Virginia Hay. Marriage of Miss Virginia Hay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis Hay, to Mr. Edward Hors-man Van Sielen, St. George's Church, Seabright, N. J. Wedding of Miss Amslita Stagg, daughter of Mr. Leonard C. Stagg, and Mr. Julian F. Thompson, at 132 East Nineteenth street, after-

MRS.

ROBERT GOELET

Hot Springs Keeps Visitors Outdoors Late Season Makes Rides and

Spring Weather at

Picnics Popular - Many New Yorkers There.

tal Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD Hor Springs, Va., May 27.

HE late spring season here con-

Wedding Bells for June Brides Start Ringing Thursday

Misses Clarke, Van Ingen, Erdmann and Ostrander to Be Wed on June 1.

T / EDDING bells for brides of June will begin their ringbeth Minot Clarke, Katherine Van Ingen, Olivia Sturtevant Erdmann and Morris Ostrander have all chosen the first day of the month for will include Misses Mariquita Penniman, Amalita Stagg, Lilian Aldrich, Anna Louise Woodruff, Virginia Hay, Leslie Carter and Marion Aubrey

Mr. Charles Edes F. Clarke and Mrs. Chamberlain Clarke, will become the bride of Mr. John F. Jelke, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Jelke of Chicago. Their wedding will be a small one and will take place in the Chapel of St. Saviour in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, with Bishop Herbert Ship-man officiating. A small reception will be held at Sherry's. Miss Clarke will have only one attendant, Mrs. William Remson of Rye, N. Y. Mr. Ferdinand Frazier Jelke will be best man for his brother. There will be no ushers.

Miss Clarke is a granddaughter of Dr. Cyrus M. Chamberlain of Andover, Mass., and a grandniece of Dr. George Minot Garland and of the late Dr. Myron L. Chamberlain of Boston

Miss Erdmann, who is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John F. Erdmann, will become the bride of Mr. John L. Kuser, Jr., son of Mr. John L. Kuser of Bordentown, N. J., Their wedding will be a simple one and will take place at the Erdmann residence, 60 West Fifty-second street, only members of the immediate families being asked to the ceremony, but invitations to the breakfast at the Colony Club are more gengral including other relatives and intimate friends.

including other relatives and intimate friends.

Miss Erdmann will have Miss Maris Louise Baldwin of San Francisco for her maid of honor and her sister. Miss Jane Erdmann, and Miss Adeia Kuser, sister of the bridegroom, for bridesmaids, Mr. Francis A. Callery will be best man and Mr. Waiter Kuser, brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. Sturtevant Erdmann, brother of the bride, will be the unberg.

THE late spring season here continues in very happy and very amiable fashion, and in both the homestead and in the cottage colony there is much pleasant diversion. Mr. and Mrs. William Raymond of Cedarhurst, L. I., gave a dinner early in the week for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seligman, Mr. and Mrs. George Batcheller of New York, Miss Jean Hinkle of Osterville, Mass.; Mr. Robert Batcheller of Washington and the Baron and Baroness Rosenkrantz.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond later took their guests to the "moytes," which, by the way, form a distinctive phase of life here, many attending them here the way, form a distinctive phase of life here, many attending them here who never do so anywhere else. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seligman of New York entertained the same company during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Schmidlapp of New York are very active in entertaining. With Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tinker they gave a dinner at Fassifern Farm for Mr. and Mrs. C. K. D. Walsh shortly after their arrival from New York.